3. THIRD PARTIES TRANSACTING ON BEHALF OF MEDICAL SERVICE PROVIDERS

- Third Parties that provide administration services on behalf of medical service providers must take note of the following:
 - a. They must be able to obtain and make available copies of the original claim documents and medical invoices from medical service providers.
 - b. They must keep such records in their original state as received from the medical service provider and must furnish the Compensation Commissioner with such documents on request for the purposes of auditing.
- The Fund will not provide or disclose any information related to a medical service provider, represented by a third party, where such information relates to a period prior to them being contracting to a third party.

4. THE EMPLOYEE AND THE MEDICAL SERVICE PROVIDER

Medical Service Providers are encouraged to take note of the following guidance when treating patients in terms of the Compensation for Occupational Injuries and Diseases Act of 1993 (COID Act):

- a. Employees as defined in the COID Act of 1993, are generally free to choose their preferred Medical Service Provider, provided that such choice is exercised reasonably and without prejudice to the employee or the Compensation Fund.
 - ® An exception applies where an employer, with the approval of the Compensation Fund, provides comprehensive medical aid facilities to its employees, e.g. Hospital, nursing and other medical services, as contemplated in Section 78 of the COID Act, in such cases, treatment arrangements may differ.
- b. In terms of Section 42 of the COID Act, the Compensation Fund may refer an injured employee to a specialist medical service provider designated by the Director General for a medical examination and report. Medical Service providers should cooperate with such referrals where they occur.
- c. Medical Service Providers are reminded that in accordance with section 76(3)(b) of the COID Act, medical expenses may not be recovered from the employee. Providers should therefore avoid billing employees directly for services that fall within accepted COID claims.
- d. Where a change of Medical Service Providers occurs, the first treating doctor is generally regarded as the principal treating doctor, unless the case is transferred to a specialist.
- e. To promote continuity of care and avoid disputes, Medical Service Providers are encouraged not to treat an employee who is already under the care of another practitioner without first consulting or informing the principal treating doctor.
- f. Any changes of medical service providers should be supported by sufficient reasons, and such reasons should be communicated to the Compensation Fund to ensure clarity and proper case management.
- g. In line to section 5 of the National Health Act no 61 of 2003, a health care provider may not refuse a person emergency medical treatment. In emergency situations, Medical Service Providers are not required to obtain prior authorisation from the Compensation Fund before rendering such treatment even if the claim has not yet been registered or accepted.

employments labour

Department:

- h. Employees who seek medical treatment do so at their own risk where they have not informed their employer and/or the Compensation Fund of possible grounds for a COID claim. Medical Service Providers should be aware that, under such circumstances, The Compensation Fund may not accept responsibility for the settlements of the medical expenses incurred.
- i. Where a claim is repudiated by the Compensation Fund, the employee is regarded in the same position as any other member of the public in respect of payment for medical services rendered.

5. OVERVIEW OF THE COID CLAIMS PROCESS

- All claims lodged in the prescribed manner with the Compensation Fund are subjected to the following process:
 - a. New claims are registered by the Employers with the Compensation Fund in the prescribed manner. Details and progress of the claim can be viewed on the online processing system for registered users of the system.
 - b. Proof of identity is required through the submission of a copy of an Identity document/card, will be required for a claim to be registered with the Compensation Fund. In the case of foreign nationals, the proof of identity (passport) must be certified.
 - c. All supporting documentation submitted to the Compensation Fund must reflect the identity and claim numbers of the employee.
 - d. Once an incident is reported to the Fund a claims number will be allocated to acknowledge receipt, but this does not imply acceptance of liability for the claim.
 - e. On acceptance of liability for claims in terms of the COID Act, all reasonable medical expenses, arising from the related medical condition shall be paid to medical service providers, and in accordance to approved tariffs, billing rules and procedures as published in the medical tariff gazettes of the Compensation Fund.
 - f. If a claim is repudiated in terms of the COID Act, medical expenses, will not be payable. The employer and the employee will be informed of this decision, and the injured employee will be liable for payment of medical costs incurred.
 - g. In the event of insufficient claim information being made available to the Compensation Fund, the claim will be rejected until the outstanding information is submitted and liability can be determined.
 - h. Manner of payment of medical benefits for Compensation Fund claims, where liability has been accepted (adjudicated) on or after 1 April 2025.
 - All medical invoices for accepted claims must be submitted, in the prescribed manner within 36 months of the date of acceptance of liability.
 - And or within 36 months from the date of service, which ever may apply.
 - Medical invoices received after said time frame will be considered as late submission of invoices and may be rejected.
 - i. All service providers should be registered on the Compensation Fund claims processing system to capture medical invoices and medical reports for medical services rendered.
 - j. Submission of medical reports and invoices is permitted solely for claims where liability has been accepted by the Compensation Fund and where payment of reasonable medical expenses is authorised.

6. BILLING REQUIREMENTS FOR MEDICAL SERVICES PROVIDED TO INJURED OR DISEASED EMPLOYEES

Submission of Medical Reports

- In terms of section 74(1)- (5) of the Compensation for Occupational Injuries and Diseases Act, 1993 (COIDA Act), every Medical Service Provider shall submit the prescribed medical reports when claiming from the Compensation Fund.
- The First Medical Report (W.CL 4), completed after the initial consultation, shall:
 - o Confirm the clinical description of the injury or disease.
 - o Detail all procedures performed; and
 - o Record all referrals to other medical service providers, where applicable.
- All follow up consultations shall be recorded on a Progress Medical Report (W.CL 5). Any procedure or operation performed during the reporting period shall be clearly detailed, including all referrals, where applicable.
- A Progress Medical Report shall cover a maximum period of thirty (30) days, except where a procedure has been performed during that period, in which case an additional operation report shall be submitted.
- Where multiple procedures are performed on the same date of service, only one medical report shall be submitted in respect of that service date.
- ® Upon stabilisation of the injury or disease, a Final Medical Report (W.CL 5F) shall be completed and submitted
- Medical Service Providers shall attach a medical report or other appropriate medical documentation to every claim submitted to the Compensation Fund.
- Medical Service Providers shall retain copies of all submitted medical reports and shall make such records available to the Compensation Commissioner upon request.
- With effect from 1 April 2025, ALL medical practitioners shall submit relevant patient records together with medical invoices for services rendered. (This includes hospitals, anaesthetists and any other practitioners that have not previously been required to do so)

Submission of Medical Invoices

- Medical invoices shall be submitted only in respect of claims for which liability has been formally accepted by the Compensation Fund and where payment of reasonable medical expenses has been authorised.
- The submission of medical invoices without the required accompanying medical documentation shall be strictly prohibited and shall result in rejection of the invoice.
- Duplicate invoices shall not be submitted under any circumstances.
- Running accounts or statements shall not be accepted and shall be rejected at system level.

Minimum Information Requirements for Medical Invoices

Every medical invoice submitted to the Compensation Fund shall, at a minimum, include the following information:

- The allocated Compensation Fund claim number.
- The full name, surname and identity number of the employee.
- The name and Compensation Fund registration number of the employer, as reflected on the Employer's Report of Accident (W.CL 2);
